The Baldwin Awards recognize excellence in film and video and are open to all Boston College undergraduates. Prizes for the winning films include a screening on @BC and BC Cable, a Baldwin statuette, and a gift certificate to B&H Photo Video in New York City. The Best Picture and Viewers Choice films will also be screened at the seventh annual Boston College Arts Festival, during the Free Friday Flicks program on Friday, April 29, 2005, 4–6 p.m. in Devlin 008.

Alumni Host

Michele Meek '94 is the co-founder/president of BuyIndies.com, an international community to buy and sell independent, educational, and hard-to-find films, and founder/publisher of NewEnglandFilm.com, the premier online resource and magazine for local film and video professionals. She has overseen the launch of dozens of independent film websites and was awarded the 2000 Image Award for Vision and Excellence by Women in Film & Video New England for her contributions as a pioneer in the film and Internet industries. Her entrepreneurial successes have been lauded in Inc. magazine, NPR, and the Boston Globe. In addition, Michele worked in both the independent and Hollywood film industry as a screenwriter, director, producer, and script reader. She received a bachelor of arts from Boston College and a master's of fine arts from Emerson College.
