

Alumni Host

Toar Winter '93 is a writer and editor for Finish Editorial, finishedit.com, in Boston, where he cuts everything from television shows to advertisements to short films, including recent spots for ESPN, GameTap, and Subway. Toar, who was a communication major at Boston College, previously worked in the broadcast department at the advertising firm Hill, Holliday and later joined the staff at National Boston. In addition to his editing work, Toar, under the pseudonym Gordon G. Gourd, and Chris Clancy '93 self-published Get Stoned and Read This Book, which is now in its fifth printing. The book has led to other independent ventures, including a feature film and a high-end printing business.

VIEWER'S CHOICE AWARD

Nominees in all other categories are eligible for the Viewer's Choice award; members of the Boston College community voted for the winner online.

BEST PICTURE OF THE YEAR

Nominees in all other categories are eligible for the Best Picture award.

2nd Annual Baldwin Award Nominations

The Baldwin Awards (www.bc.edu/baldwins) recognize excellence in film and video and are open to all Boston College undergraduates. Prizes for the winning films include a screening on @BC, BC Cable, and at the Baldwin Awards Film Festival, a Baldwin statuette, and a gift certificate to B&H Photo Video. The Best Picture and Viewer's Choice films will also be screened on Friday, April 28, 2006, at the eighth annual Boston College Arts Festival.
